

Berlin IMTC 2026

Private Tour

By Klaus Wehner

Discover the Cultural Heart of Berlin: Museum Island

Join us for an inspiring cultural walk through Museum Island, one of Berlin's most iconic landmarks and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This open-air tour offers a compelling introduction to the history, architecture, and ideas that shaped Germany's museum culture—right where it all began.

Strolling at a relaxed pace, you will explore the island's remarkable ensemble of world-renowned institutions, including the striking Berlin Cathedral.

Meeting point: Bode-Museum
Am Kupfergraben 3, 10178 Berlin, Germany

Reading Berlin Through Its Architecture

Rather than entering the museums, the experience focuses on their architectural masterpieces, courtyards, and facades, revealing how the island evolved from royal ambitions to a global cultural landmark.

Led by an experienced guide, this tour blends history, art, and urban storytelling, offering fresh perspectives even to returning visitors. It is an ideal way to unwind, connect with Berlin's intellectual heritage, and decide which museum to explore further on your own.

A perfect cultural highlight alongside your conference stay.

Information

❓ This tour is a conference EXCLUSIVITY and includes a private visit of Berlin's Museum Island . It has been designed just for you.

❓ Please refer to the CONFERENCE REGISTRATION DESK for further information and registration details.

❓ Cost : € 30.00

❓ The tour was designed by Dr. Klaus Wehner. Klaus is an artist working with photography, and museums have been a central theme of his work for many years.

❓ He has a deep love for museums of all kinds and has undertaken numerous projects with and about various European museums.